CASUALTIES.

A Boy Burned to Death While Riding on Horseback.

HORRIBLE.

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 18.—Adam Roche, fifteen years old, employed at the Continental mines, in this city, left Taylorville, two miles from here, on Saturday on horseback, with a bottle of vitriol in his pocket. On the way the bottle broke in his pocket and ate through his clothing and into the flesh. His outcries frightened the horse, which dashed wildly along the road, and the boy was thrown violently to the ground. The horse went to the mine. Search was instituted for young Roche, and he was found dead beneath a tree, with his clothing torn off and his face, hands and legs badly burned. He lay curled up at the foot of the tree, where he had evidently been thrown by the horse and lingered in agony until he died from the effects of his fall.

MASHED IN A MINE.

Pittston, Pa., Dec. 18.—Jacob Boyer was killed and Peter Steinham and George Race were injured by the fall of the top of a coal incline.

CABLEGRAMS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

London, Dec. 18.—The duchess of Marlborough, wife of the lord-lieutenant of Ireland, writes that she intends to start a relief fund for the sufferers in Ireland, and appeals for contributions. She says: "While the present distress, actual or possible, is not for a moment comparative to that of '47, still undoubtedly in parts of Kerry, Galway, Sligo, Mayo, Roscommon, Donegal and Cork there will be extreme misery and suffering among the poor."

TO-DAY'S FOREIGN NOTES.

The international exhibition will be held at Rome in 1882.

The health of the czarina is pronounced most precarious.

Spain in the Bank of France increased 765,000 francs the past week.

Bullion in the Bank of England increased 293,000 during the past week.

The statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows an increase in specie of 2,240,000 marks.

It is said that Bismarck concurs in Premier Waddington's proposal of a collective mediation on the Greek question.

Lancashire, Cheshire and Derbyshire, Eng., weavers are moving for an advance of wages, owing to the revival in the cotton trade.

It is asserted that with the return of Prince Gortschakoff to office, his old system of intrigue has been recommenced, especially at Constantinople.

An early announcement of a new French ministry is predicted, with De Freycite as minister of public works and premier, and Waddington as minister of foreign affairs.

SENATE.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The vice president laid before the senate a communication from the secretary of the treasury giving information concerning the effect upon the revenues and upon consumers of the repeal of the duty on tea and coffee in 1872.

Mr. Salisbury, from the committee on privileges and elections, reported a resolution that attachments be issued to the sergeant-at-arms, commanding him to bring to the bar of the senate, for contempt, Smith and other witnesses subpoenaed by the sub-committee to investigate the charges against Senator Ingalls, and who have refused to testify. Adopted.

The members of the Massachusetts Historical Society's petition for an appropriation for a monument to commemorate the victory at Yorktown was referred.

Petitions were also presented of citizens asking the appointment of a labor commission. Referred.

HOUSE.

Mr. Weaver called attention to the article in the New York Tribune which said Weaver himself was alleged to be the author of the petitions praying that soldiers be paid the difference between the value of gold and greenbacks at the time of the payment. He said he hurried back the imputation as a slander on him and the brave men who were petitioning for equal rights with the holders of public bonds.

IN GENERAL.

The Alleged Over Issue of Pennsylvania State Bonds.

Two Thousand Workmen in a Chicago Packing House Discharged.

PENNSYLVANIA BONDS.

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—The committee of the legislature, to whom was referred the alleged over-issue of state bonds, after a session since last June, have completed their labors and prepared a report which was to-day given to the governor. They have thoroughly investigated the matter, and traced each bond to its holder. The committee found that 72,000 of the bonds deposited in the Girard Bank were paid into the treasury by C. S. Baker and accounted for by Henry S. McGraw, state treasurer. The report says: "The settlement of Henry S. McGraw is a satisfactory explanation of the whole question, and had it been placed on the minutes of the sinking fund commission there would have been no difficulty with reference to the loan, and all outstanding bonds would have been redeemed. This settlement is found on the fly leaf of one of the books of the state treasurer, a place so uncommon that the officers of the commonwealth overlooked it."

HEAVY DISCHARGE.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Fowler brothers discharged 2,000 hands in their packing house at the stock yards, because they insisted that no non-union men should work with them. Other houses are running very few hands and the whole number of workmen now idle is estimated at from 5,000 to 8,000.

CRIME.

IMPORTANT ARREST.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Pinkerton's detectives yesterday arrested Thomas Wall, an employee of the Southern Express Company at New Orleans, who in 1868 stole a package containing $10,000. At the time Wall was traced to Texas, and since then until a few weeks ago has been lost sight of. He says he has been in Texas, Boston, New York, San Francisco and Chicago since his theft. He has been taken to New Orleans.

Condensed Telegrams.

The Union flouring mill at Jonesboro, Ill., burned yesterday. Loss, $12,000; insurance, $500.

Spaulding's stove factory and outfit at Appleton, Wis., was burned this morning. Loss, $12,000; insurance, $6,000.

From an official of one of the most extensive car building establishments in the United States it is learned that the car works in this country, fifteen in number, have built in the last eleven months 37,350 cars.

Hon. E. F. Pillsbury, of Maine, has telegraphed to the Chicago Daily News that the apparent republican majority in that state was obtained by bribery and fraud, and that the action of the governor and council was justified by the circumstances.

To-night W. A. Brooks, formerly of the Olympic, will leave for Louisville, where he will open on Monday with Edward Arnold in the "Victims of Faro."

Mr. Brooks has been in the city over a year, and during his stay by his generally gentlemanly deportment has made some very warm friends who will be pleased to hear of his success wherever he goes.

Tuesday evening Miss Mary Anderson, the actress, in company with her step-father and a lady, had a narrow escape from death on Back River bridge, Wheeling, W. Va. While crossing the bridge the horse attached to the carriage became frightened and ran away and totally wrecked the vehicle. Miss Anderson jumped from the carriage and landed on the brink of an opening in the bridge, and would have fallen into the waters below but for the presence of mind of Henry Shalleross, of the transfer company, who caught her.

The lad John McEvoy, so terribly injured by a circular saw cutting his head nearly in two at Patterson, N. J., one week ago, is now dead. His father was talking to him, when the little patient was suddenly taken with convulsions, one succeeding another until he fell back dead. A number of eminent physicians visited the boy to see the remarkable sight of a lad with his skull and brain separated to the depth of over two inches, living apparently in the fullest enjoyment of all his faculties, talking intelligently and having an excellent appetite.

EXHIBITION.

There never has been a finer display of holiday goods in the jewelry line than that now shown in the magnificent show cases of Trenkle & Scherzinger. Their goods have all been selected with singularly good taste and we doubt whether another jeweler in the state can show such a variety of artistic, ornamental and useful goods. Jewelry is the most appropriate and lasting article for holiday presents. It is well worth your time to look over their stock whether you wish to purchase or not.

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION.

Details of the Terrible Boiler Explosion at Collins.

Five Persons Literally Blown In to Fragments.

Scenes of Distress Which Baffle Description.

[Columbia City Post.]

Collins is a small way station on the line of the Eel River Railroad, five miles east of Columbia City. Situated some forty rods due north of Collins, Lewis Turnbull had erected a saw mill. The mill was operated by him and his two sons, assisted by his nephew, also named Turnbull, and a young man by the name of Elsie Glenn. This force of operators were engaged yesterday, (Tuesday) forenoon in sawing lumber. About noon, a little after the citizens of Collins were startled by a most terrific explosion and looking in the direction of the sound came, they saw a vast cloud of smoke and dust hovering over the site of the Turnbull mill. On reaching the scene of the disaster, a spectacle of havoc and death met the gaze of the beholders, terrible enough in its stern reality to melt the stoniest heart. There, laying amid debris and ruins, some fifty feet north of where the mill stood, was Lewis Turnbull, cold in death. Near fifty feet northwest of the mill, lay his oldest son also dead. Due west 250 feet, lay a portion of the body of the youngest son, the balance having been literally blown and cut to pieces. The body of young Turnbull, the nephew, was only about 40 feet west of the mill, also horribly mangled. Glenn was hurled west about 100 feet, his head striking against a hickory tree, scattering his brains in all directions. A leg was found here and an arm there. Every employee in the mill, with the exception, lay dead in its ruins.

Conner, Yontz was immediately notified and at once proceeded to the scene of death. After his arrival the bodies were picked up, one by one, and the remnants of the broken limbs gathered together and placed in the barn to await burial.

The devastation made by the explosion cannot be described. Where the mill stood, there scarcely remains a vestige of even its foundation. The walls of the mill are thrown out of their places and broken. The boiler is scattered far and wide, pieces being found forty rods distant. The engine is shattered into hundreds of pieces. The saw is nowhere to be found. The brick foundation on enclosing, and upon which rested the boiler, is gone.

The explosion is supposed to have been caused by low water in the boiler.

ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS.

Another false fire alarm to day.

CONGRESSIONAL SUMMARY.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 17.—Senator Davis (W. Va.) introduced a bill to repeal certain permanent appropriations. Morgan introduced a resolution affirming the necessity for the use of greenbacks also to provide that certain railroad lands revert to the government. The bill exempting profits won by Americans from custom duty was passed. Chairman presented a memorial of Ohio stock raisers to investigate the cause of contagious diseases. Pendleton introduced an amendment to the census act. HOUSE.—Benton introduced a bill repealing the legal tender act; also to repeal the stamp act on bank checks. McCard reported a joint resolution for the protection of trade-marks. The consular appropriation bill was recommended. Jones reported a bill exempting postal employees from service. Kent reported the bill for the investigation of United States court fees. Hunt reported the bill establishing United States courts at Columbus, O. Conger offered a resolution on the late lake saving service.

THE New York Times which has been bitterly hostile to GRANT, editorially concede that his nomination is practically assured.

An evicted tenant in Ireland, who knocked down a rapacious and grasping landlord with a club, has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment. The sentence is an outrage. If the landlord had killed the tenant after having turned him out of his little hovel to starve and freeze by the wayside, he would have doubtless escaped punishment altogether. Such is justice in Ireland. Every lover of his kind must boil with indignation at such a disgraceful proceeding, and give his sympathy to the oppressed tenantry of Ireland, who are suffering under the weight of centuries of tyranny, rapacity and robbery.

THE republican national convention has been called to meet in Chicago on the 3rd of next June. Chicago is undoubtedly the best place in the country for a national convention. The city is the best located, has the best railroad facilities, the finest hotel accommodations, the greatest newspapers and the largest public hall of any city in the United States. It is also desirable because in June its climate is cool and pleasant, when it cities like Cincinnati and St. Louis it is hot and oppressive. In Chicago GRANT is stronger than in any other place, and its selection, together with the appointment of DON CAMERON as chairman of the committee, show that GRANT has a certainty of the nomination.

We think that the democratic convention should also be called to meet in Chicago. The reasons why this should be are too obvious to need enlarging upon.

THE MAINE BUSINESS.

The New York World, the leading democratic journal of the country, takes the correct view of the Maine business. The World says:

Gov. GARCELON and his advisers have made a serious political and a not less serious moral mistake. They have nullified the will of the people of Maine, as expressed at the latest election, on account of technical errors and oversights. These errors and oversights were committed, not by the electors, but by the local canvassers. The votes were, in fact, thrown out on account of informality in the manner in which they were returned. There is no pretence that this informality was such as to leave the intention of the voters in doubt. The tenor of all statutes, judicial decisions, and treaties which deal with elections is that every presumption should be made in favor of giving effect to the real intention of the voters. The canvassers in Maine have unquestionably nullified the real intention of the voters. There is no denying that fact, and, with fair-minded people, that fact will be decisive of any controversy that may be raised. It is plain that the defeated legislators who have thus been counted in ought to refuse to serve, and leave the organization of the legislature to the republicans who were elected to it. Only in that way can they remove from the democratic-greenback party of Maine a share of the disgrace which already belongs to the republican party of the nation. The "republicans" should be allowed to enjoy a monopoly of the practice of MAJOR VIOLENCE and its colleagues. If the democratic vote to keep the advantage of the position which JAMES SHERMAN, the two CHANDLERs and STODOLSON have secured them.

We do not think the demerit of the country endorses the action of the Maine canvassing board, or any other expedient by which the verdict of the people in any state is set aside on the strength of technicalities. The SENTINEL certainly does not endorse it. It can not approve in democratic what it condemns in republicanism. Of course the action of the Maine canvassers is not equal in iniquity to that of the Louisiana returning boards. The latter violated the very law under which they assumed to act, but the Maine democrats complied with the law, at least in its technical requirements. We have no doubt that the republicans obtained their majority in Maine by a wholesale resort to bribery and corruption, and that on a full and fair vote they have no majority in the state. But for all that the face of the returns showed a republican majority, and it should have been so certified. However, the democratic party of the nation cannot be held responsible for the conduct of Gov. GARCELON and his associates if they promptly disavow it and express their disapproval of it as the World—the ablest and most influential democratic journal in the country—has hastened to do in such explicit and unequivocal terms.

STATE POLITICS.

The Wabash Courier boasts for Judge Slack for Congress.

The Indianapolis Journal gives Billy Williams a boost for governor.

The Warsaw Indianan endorses Horace E. James, of Reensaler for secretary of state.

Evansville Courier:

It seems to be conceded on all sides that the contest for the republican nomination for governor is between Gen. Schenck and Gen. Morton C. Hunter.

Ligonier Banner:

Perhaps Mr. Tilden might be induced to accept the chairmanship of the democratic national convention. He enjoys the reputation of being a capital organizer.

Columbia City Post:

The Fort Wayne SENTINEL asks: "Can Hendricks carry New York?" The Post answers: "We believe he can. At least he would be much stronger in the state than Tilden."

Eli W. Brown:

Warsaw has three candidates for positions on the republican state ticket. Our political friends in that city would always vote for the candidate who was not passed round.

The Evansville Courier says:

Since the Louisiana election the republicans have concluded to abandon the idea of attempting to carry any of the southern states. The fight must be for New York and Indiana.

The Terre Haute Express says:

The Seymour and Hendricks boom has been enjoying a vacation for over a week. Whether it will again come to the front with renewed vigor is a question which time and capricious democracy alone can answer.

The Columbia City Post takes great delight in abusing the greatest democratic statesman in the country. For instance:

Tilden, the Grant, is in the hands of his friends. It is to be hoped they will both be kept there.

The Lagrange Democrat says:

The Northern Indianan mentions the great likelihood of Billy Williams, of Warsaw, being chosen in the front end of the republican ticket in this state. It is hoped by the democratic beyond doubt that Billy will be chosen, as he will sink into nothingness at the end of the race race that Mr. Harrison, grandson of his grandfather.

The Ligonier Banner says:

The Michigan City Dispatch thinks Bayard could carry Indiana by a large majority. "We put our judgment against that of the Dispatch by declaring that Bayard could not carry Indiana with 30,000 votes or carrying Indiana. Bayard's nomination would not only result disastrously to himself but would completely destroy every chance of electing the state ticket."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The senate judiciary committee has agreed to report favorably the nomination of Ex-Congressman Secor, of Virginia, to be chief justice of Wyoming Territory.

The secretary of the treasury informs the sergeant-at-arms of the house that he can draw silver certificates instead of silver for 20 percent of the salaries of members.

The senate, Wednesday, confirmed the following appointments: Receivers of public moneys, F. J. Burton, East Saginaw, Mich.; G. B. Falsom, Taylor's Falls, Minn.; G. F. Pressnell, Duluth, Minn. Indian agent, C. H. Hulton, of Michigan, for Indians of Shoshone agency, Wy. T.; J. Q. Tufts, Union agency, I. T.

McCabe, who is contesting the seat of Representative Orth, of the ninth Indiana district, filed his sworn petition and statement Wednesday, accompanying it with an affidavit setting forth fraud and intimidation, bribery and illegal voting on the part of republicans. The affidavit of T. E. Ballard, a lawyer of Lafayette, sets forth that thirty-five students of Wabash College voted for Orth, not having any legal residence in the precincts where their vote was cast; also that fourteen minors and twenty-nine persons imported from other counties of the state voted for Orth, and that all these votes were canvassed for Orth; two other affidavits, one of them by John C. Dohelbrow, editor of the Lafayette Dispatch, assert that a society exists at Lafayette having for its object the procuring and selling of votes to the highest bidder, and that with two or three exceptions all of its members voted for Orth.

How Maine Went.

Full details of the count made by the governor and the council show the following results: In the senate the fusionists are given twenty members and the republicans eleven. In the house the fusionists stand seventy-eight, republicans sixty-one. Five cities with twelve republican representatives—Portland, Bath, Lewiston, Rockland and Saco—are without representation. The house will be thus twelve short at its organization. By the electing returns the republicans had a majority of thirty-six on joint ballot. As counted by the governor and council the fusionists have a majority of twenty-six on joint ballot. The republicans claim that the rejection and changes were wholly on technical grounds.

The evicted tenant who struck down Lord Ferly in the Limerick county club house Saturday last, has been sentenced to five years' penal servitude. The sentence caused a sensation in court.

Serious disputes have taken place between the czar and czarowitz, which have created great excitement in court circles, and generally throughout St. Petersburg. The main facts, as alleged, are that the czarowitz, whose sympathies have long been with the popular party, demanded of the czar the immediate institution of certain reforms, which he claims, are indispensable to the welfare and safety of the empire and the continuance of the existing dynasty. The czar, on the receipt of the communication containing this demand, not only indignantly refused to take any steps toward acceding to it, but peremptorily ordered the arrest of the czarowitz.

AFTER LONG YEARS.

Mrs. Hotchkiss, of Niagara, Conn., N. Y., is Arrested for the Murder of her Husband and Son.

In the latter part of the year 1867 there lived on the borders of Niagara river, in the town of Porter, the Hotchkiss family, consisting of George C. Hotchkiss, his wife Adeline C. Hotchkiss, and their son Holly C. Hotchkiss. During an absence of Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mr. Hotchkiss was taken ill. Dr. Edward Smith, of the near village of Lewiston, was called, and administered such remedies as he deemed the case required. Upon Mrs. Hotchkiss' return Dr. Smith had either discontinued his visits or was dismissed by her order, and Dr. Wilson was summoned. Hotchkiss died, and was buried without exciting suspicion of foul play. Two years later found Mrs. Hotchkiss and son residents of Buffalo, where the young man was enjoying the benefits of a commercial college. He likewise was taken sick, and after a month's suffering died. Dr. Wilson was an occasional visitor at the Hotchkiss residence during all this time.

Now, if George C. Hotchkiss, the husband, and Holly C. Hotchkiss, the son, were really murdered by the operation of the accused, what was the motive? Mrs. Hotchkiss possessed some property of her own right. Holly C. Hotchkiss received $40,000 by the will of a deceased uncle, Calvin C. Hotchkiss. Mrs. Hotchkiss, by her conduct since the death of her husband, has borne evidence of infatuation with Dr. Wilson. It is said that Dr. Wilson's removal to Lockport, where he practiced for several years, was in part, if not wholly, to make convenient his visits to Mrs. Hotchkiss. The enjoyment of Mrs. Hotchkiss and the avails of a large property are considered incentives to urge on the crime on the part of Dr. Wilson.

Dr. Wilson removed to Detroit several years ago, and was soon followed by Mrs. Hotchkiss, and they were walking upon the streets of that city together when arrested by order of the sheriff of Niagara county. These are suspicious circumstances, and the gossips are making the most of them.

The scandal, continually provoked by imprudent conduct on the part of Mrs. Hotchkiss and Dr. Wilson led to the investigation which has culminated in their indictment. No steps towards an inquiry were taken until June last, when Dr. Lafayette Balcom, improving on the increasing "talk," took the matter in hand. The remains of both bodies were disinterred and brought to Lockport for analysis.

Dr. Simon Tucker Clark and Dr. A. Walter Tryon made the examination, and reported the discovery of arsenic in considerable quantities in both remains. Hence the arrest of the parties as narrated above.

DAYTON DEVILRY.

A Brute in Human Shape Attempts an Outrage on His Sister.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

One of the most disgusting attempts at rape, which had been accomplished, would have added to the crime with which Emil Schenkel, a youth of sixteen, stands charged, the more revolting one of incest was heard at Dayton, O., before Esquire Kelly, and the accused sent to jail to await the action of the next grand jury.

There is an unnaturalness enshrouding the entire affair, which causes one to believe that at times Nature makes mistakes and sends those into the world and allows them to remain and breathe the pure air of heaven that they might increase in strength and enlarge themselves as cancers upon society. Emil Schenkel is the son of a shoemaker, living at the corner of Stout and Catharine streets. The family consists of five daughters, the oldest of whom, Mortheis, has but recently entered her fifteenth year. Emil is a boy of but ordinary intelligence.

On Tuesday afternoon his father appeared before Esquire Kelly, and filed an affidavit charging his son with an attempt to rape and carnally know his sister, Mortheis. The boy was arrested and at once put upon his preliminary examination.

On the witness stand he confessed to having an improper knowledge of his sister, but claimed that he was persuaded to it by her, but that he had never accomplished anything more than an attempt. The girl, who appears to be much brighter than her brother, testified that his advances began two years ago, when she was but thirteen years old, when he came to her bed and attempted to outrage her, but was repulsed. Last Sunday morning he went to the room where three of his sisters were sleeping in one bed, and again assaulted the eldest, Mortheis, but one of the sisters, a child eight years old, awoke, and he became alarmed and left the bed and went to his own room. It was this child who informed the father of Emil's actions, and hence his arrest. In a conversation with the boy after the trial he freely admitted to your reporter that he had known his sister, but claimed that it was through her persuasion, and that the first time he had carnal knowledge of her was in the stable on the premises three months ago, and that he had known her but twice since, each time, he claims, being persuaded to do so by his sister.

The question of selecting a time and place for holding the next convention then arose.

Root of Illinois presented the claims of Chicago as the place for holding the convention.

Deacon Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, told why he thought the convention should go to Parkopolis.

Martindale was firmly convinced that Indianapolis was the place they were looking for.

Jacket could not see why they should look farther when Saratoga Springs was at hand. Philadelphia has a permanent exposition building and of course the convention must meet there.

A vote was then taken and Chicago was selected as follows: Chicago, 24; Saratoga Springs, 4; Cincinnati, 2; and Indianapolis, 2.

The time for holding the next convention was fixed for Wednesday, June 3rd.

A Surprised Physician.

A DYING PATIENT DISCOVERS THROUGH THE INTERPOSITION OF A HUMBLE GROOMAN.—Some weeks ago Dr. G., a very reputable and widely-known physician, living on C street, was called to attend a very complicated case of rheumatism.

Upon arriving at the house he found a man about forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame dangerously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knees and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The weight of the clothing was so oppressive that means had to be adopted to keep it from the patient's body.

The doctor saw that his assistance would be of no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door, weeping. At this critical hour, a neighbor, a poor and humble German shoemaker, appeared to the grief-stricken ones as a saving angel. He had heard of the despair of the family, and now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. As a drowning man will catch at straws, so the poor wife applied this remedy; she had no hope, but would try anything, as a matter of duty. The first application eased the patient very much: after a few hours they used it again, and, wonder of wonders, the pain vanished entirely! Every subsequent application improved the sufferer and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after, he was indeed surprised; for, instead of a corpse, he found a new-made man.—Pittsburg.

A returned New Caledonian met Victor Hugo the other day and cried to him: "How goes it, you gray-haired old man?" Hugo clutched at the wellkin for a thunderbolt. "You gray-haired old custodian of the people's liberties!" the man concluded. Hugo embraced him with effusion.

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.

WEINER, DEC. 17. SENATE.—Davis (W. Va.) introduced a bill to repeal certain permanent appropriations. Morgan introduced a resolution affirming the necessity for the use of greenbacks also to provide that certain railroad funds revert to the government. The bill exempting prizes won by Americans from custom duty was passed. Thurman presented a memorial of Ohio stock raisers to investigate the cause of contagious diseases. Pendleton introduced an amendment to the census act. HOUSE.—Hallen introduced a bill repealing the legal tender act; also to repeal the stamp tax on bank checks. McCord reported a joint resolution for the protection of bridge-tolls. The consular appropriation bill was recommitted. Jones reported a bill exempting postal employees from service. Knott reported the bill for the investigation of United States court fees. Hunt reported the bill establishing United States courts at Columbus, O. Conner offered a resolution on the lake life saving service.

The New York Times which has been bitterly hostile to GRANT, editorially concede that his nomination is practically assured.

An evicted tenant in Ireland, who knocked down a rapacious and grasping landlord with a club, has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment. The sentence is an outrage. If the landlord had killed the tenant after having turned him out of his little hovel to starve and freeze by the wayside, he would have doubtless escaped punishment altogether. Such is justice in Ireland. Every lover of his kind must boil with indignation at such a disgraceful proceeding, and give his sympathy to the oppressed tenantry of Ireland, who are suffering under the weight of centuries of tyranny, rapacity and robbery.

The republican national convention has been called to meet in Chicago on the 3rd of next June. Chicago is undoubtedly the best place in the country for a national convention. The city is the best located, has the best railroad facilities, the finest hotel accommodations, the greatest newspapers and the largest public hall of any city in the United States. It is also desirable because in June its climate is cool and pleasant, when it cities like Cincinnati and St. Louis it is hot and oppressive. In Chicago GRANT is stronger than in any other place, and its selection, together with the appointment of DON CAMERON as chairman of the committee, show that GRANT has a certainty of the nomination.

We think that the democratic convention should also be called to meet in Chicago. The reasons why this should be are too obvious to need enlarging upon.

THE MAINE BUSINESS.

The New York World, the leading democratic journal of the country, takes the correct view of the Maine business. The World says: Gov. GANGLION and his advisers have made a serious political and a not less serious moral mistake. They have nullified the will of the people of Maine, as expressed at the latest election, on account of technical errors and oversights. These errors and oversights were committed, not by the electors, but by the local canvassers. The votes were, in fact, thrown out on account of informality in the manner in which they were returned. There is no pretence that this informality was such as to leave the intention of the voters in doubt. The tenor of all statutes, judicial decisions, and treaties which deal with elections is that every presumption should be made in favor of giving effect to the real intention of the voters. The canvassers in Maine have unquestionably nullified the real intention of the voters. There is no dodging that fact, and, with fair-minded people, that fact will be decisive of any controversy that may be raised. It is plain that the defeated legislators who have thus been counted in ought to refuse to serve, and leave the organization of the legislature to the republicans who were elected to it. Only in that way can they remove from the democratic-greenback party of Maine a share of the disgrace which already belongs to the republican party of the nation. The legislators should be allowed to enjoy a monopoly of the practices of Madison Wells and his colleagues, if the democrats are to keep the advantage of the position which they have secured through the election of SHERMAN, the two CHANDLERs and MAGORISON have secured them.

We do not think the democracy of the country endorse the action of the Maine canvassing board; or any other expedient by which the verdict of the people in any state is set aside on the strength of technicalities. The SENATE certainly does not endorse it. It can not approve in democrats what it condemns in republicans. Of course the action of the Maine canvassers is not equal in iniquity to that of the Louisiana returning boards. The latter violated the very law under which they assumed to act, but the Maine democrats complied with the law, at least in its technical requirements. We have no doubt that the republicans obtained their majority in Maine by a wholesale resort to bribery and corruption, and that on a full and fair vote they have no majority in the state. But for all that the face of the returns showed a republican majority, and it should have been so certified. However, the democratic party of the nation cannot be held responsible for the conduct of Gov. GANGLION and his associates if they promptly disavow it and express their disapproval of it as the World—the ablest and most influential democratic journal in the country—has hastened to do in such explicit and unequivocal terms.

STATE POLITICS.

The Wabash Courier booms for Judge Slack for Congress.

The Indianapolis Journal gives Billy Williams a boost for governor.

The Warsaw Indianan endorses Horace E. James, of Rensselaer for secretary of state.

Evansville Courier: It seems to be conceded on all sides that the contest for the republican nomination for governor is between Gen. Slack and Gen. Morton C. Hunter.

Ligonier Banner: Perhaps Mr. Tilden might be induced to accept the chairmanship of the democratic national committee. He enjoys the reputation of being a central organizer.

Columbia City Post: The Port Wayne Sentinel asks: "Can Hendricks carry New York?" The Post answers: "We believe he can. At least he will be much stronger in the state than Tilden."

Eli W. Brown: Warsaw has three candidates for positions on the republican state ticket. Our radical friends in that city were always noted for modesty when the political rooster was passed round.

The Evansville Courier says: Since the Louisiana election the republicans have concluded to abandon the idea of attempting to carry any of the southern states. The fight must be for New York and Indiana.

The Terre Haute Express says: The Seymour and Hendricks boom has been enjoying a vacation for over a week. What will it all again come to? The fight with renewed vigor is a conundrum which time and capricious democracy alone can answer.

The Columbia City Post takes great delight in abusing the greatest democratic statesman in the country. For instance: Tilden, like Grant, is in the hands of his friends. It is to be hoped they will both be kept there.

The Lagrange Democrat says: The Northern Indiana mentions the great likelihood of Billy Williams, of Warsaw, being chosen as the front end of the gubernatorial ticket in this state. It is a pity that the democracy of this state that Billy will be chosen, as he will sink into nothingness at the end of the race worse than Harrison, grandson of his grandfather.

The Ligonier Banner says: The Michigan City Dispatch thinks could carry Indiana "by a large majority." We do not intend to be deceived by the Dispatch by declaring that they are not content with 30,000 votes of carrying Indiana. Bayard's nomination would not only result disastrously to himself but would completely destroy every chance of electing the state ticket.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The senate judiciary committee has agreed to report favorably the nomination of Ex-Congressman Secor, of Virginia, to be chief justice of Wyoming Territory.

The secretary of the treasury informs the sergeant-at-arms of the house that he can draw silver certificates instead of silver for 20 percent of the salaries of members.

The senate, Wednesday, confirmed the following appointments: Receivers of public moneys, F. J. Burton, East Saginaw, Mich.; G. B. Falsom, Taylor's Falls, Minn.; H. F. Fossell, Duluth, Minn. Indian agent, C. Halton, of Michigan, for Indian of Shoshone agency, Wy. T.; J. Q. Tufts, Union agency, I. T.

McCabe, who is contesting the seat of Representative Orth, of the ninth Indiana district, filed his sworn petition and statement Wednesday, accompanying it with an affidavit setting forth fraud and intimidation, bribery and illegal voting on the part of republicans. The affidavit of T. E. Ballard, a lawyer of Lafayette, sets forth that thirty-five residents of Wabash College voted for Orth, not having any legal residence in the precincts where their vote was cast; also that fourteen minors and twenty-nine persons imported from other counties of the state voted for Orth, and that all these votes were canvassed for Orth; two other affidavits, one of them by John C. Dohelhower, editor of the Lafayette Dispatch, asserting that a society exists at Lafayette having for its object the procuring and selling of votes to the highest bidder, and that with two or three exceptions all of its members voted for Orth.

How Maine Went.

Full details of the count made by the governor and the council show the following results: In the senate the republicans are given twenty members and the republicans eleven. In the house the fusionists stand seventy-eight, republicans sixty-one. Five cities with twelve republican representatives—Portland, Bath, Lewiston, Rockland and Saco—are without representation. The house will be thus twelve short at its organization. By the election returns the republicans had a majority of thirty-six on joint ballot. As counted by the governor and council the fusionists have a majority of twenty-six on joint ballot. The republicans claim that the elections and changes were wholly on technical grounds.

The evicted tenant who struck down Lord Forly in the Limerick club house Saturday last, has been sentenced to five years' penal servitude. The sentence caused a sensation in court.

Serious disputes have taken place between the czar and czarowitz, which have created great excitement in court circles, and generally throughout St. Petersburg. The main facts, as alleged, are that the czarowitz, whose sympathies have long been with the popular party, demanded of the czar the immediate institution of certain reforms, which, he claims, are indispensable to the welfare and safety of the empire and the continuance of the existing dynasty. The czar, on the receipt of the communication curtly refusing this demand, not only indignantly refused to take any steps toward acceding to it, but he promptly ordered the arrest of the czarowitz.

AFTER LONG YEARS.

Mrs. Hotchkiss, of Niagara, County, N. Y., is arrested for the Murder of her Husband and Son.

In the latter part of the year 1867 there lived on the borders of Niagara river, in the town of Porter, the Hotchkiss family, consisting of George C. Hotchkiss, his wife Adeline C. Hotchkiss, and their son Holly C. Hotchkiss. During an absence of Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mr. Hotchkiss was taken ill. Dr. Edward Smith, of the near village of Lewiston, was called, and administered such remedies as he deemed the case required. Upon Mrs. Hotchkiss's return Dr. Smith had either discontinued his visits or was dismissed by her order, and Dr. Wilson was summoned. Hotchkiss died, and was buried without exciting suspicion of foul play. Two years later found Mrs. Hotchkiss and son residents of Buffalo, where the latter was enjoying the benefits of a commercial college. He likewise was taken sick, and after a month's suffering died. Dr. Wilson was an occasional visitor at the Hotchkiss residence during all this time.

Now, if George C. Hotchkiss, the husband, and Holly C. Hotchkiss, the son, were really murdered by the co-operation of the accused, what was the motive? Mrs. Hotchkiss possessed some property of her own right. Holly C. Hotchkiss received $40,000 by the will of a deceased uncle, Calvin C. Hotchkiss. Mrs. Hotchkiss, by her conduct since the death of her husband, has borne evidence of infatuation with Dr. Wilson. It is said that Dr. Wilson's removal to Lockport, where he practiced for several years, was in part, if not wholly, to make convenient his visits to Mrs. Hotchkiss. The enjoyment of Mrs. Hotchkiss and the avails of a large property are considered incentive to urge on the crime on the part of Dr. Wilson. Dr. Wilson removed to Detroit several years ago, and was followed by Mrs. Hotchkiss and they were walking upon the streets of that city together when arrested by order of the sheriff of Niagara county. These are suspicious circumstances, and the gossips are making the most of them.

The scandal, continually provoked by imprudent conduct on the part of Mrs. Hotchkiss and Dr. Wilson led to the investigation which has culminated in their indictment. No steps towards an inquiry were taken until June last, when Dr. Lafayette Ballard, improving on the increasing "talk" took the matter in hand. The remains of both bodies were disinterred and brought to Lockport for analysis. Dr. Simon Tucker Clark and Dr. A. Walter Tryon made the examination, and reported the discovery of arsenic in considerable quantities in both remains. Hence the arrest of the parties as narrated above.

DAYTON DEVILTRY.

A Brute in Human Shape Attempts an Outrage on His Sister.

One of the most disgusting attempts at rape, which, had it been accomplished, would have added to the crime with which Emil Schmelbe, a youth of sixteen, stands charged, the revolting one of incest—was heard at Dayton, O., before Esquire Kelly, and the accused sent to jail to await the action of the next grand jury. There is an unnaturalness enshrouding the entire affair, which causes one to believe that at times Nature makes mistakes and sends those into the world and allows them to remain and breathe the pure air of heaven that they might increase in strength and enlarge themselves as cancers upon society. Emil Schmelbe is the son of a shoemaker, living at the corner of Stout and Catharine streets. The family of children, in addition to Emil, consists of five daughters, the oldest of whom, Morthenia, has but recently entered her fifteenth year. Emil is a boy of but ordinary intelligence. On Tuesday afternoon his father appeared before Esquire Kelly, and filed an affidavit charging his son with an attempt to rape and carnally know his sister, Marthenia. The boy was arrested and at once put upon his preliminary examination. On the witness stand he confessed to having an improper knowledge of his sister, but claimed that he was persuaded to it by her, but that he had never accomplished anything more than an attempt. The girl, who appears to be a bright and sensible young woman, testified that his advances began two years ago, when she was but thirteen years old, when he came to her bed and attempted to outrage her, but was repulsed. Last Sunday morning he went to the room where three of his sisters were sleeping in one bed, and again assaulted the eldest, Marthenia, but one of the sisters, and he became alarmed and left the bed and went to his own room. It was this child who, informed the father of Emil's actions, and hence his arrest. In a conversation with the boy after the trial he freely admitted to your reporter that he had known his sister, but claimed that it was through her persuasion, and that the first time he had carnal knowledge of her was in the stable on the premises three months ago, and that he had known her but twice since, each time, he claims, being persuaded to do so by his sister.

Chicago's Capture.

The republican national committee in session at Washington yesterday adopted resolutions of respect for the late Senator Chandler.

The question of selecting a time and place for holding the next convention then arose.

Root of Illinois presented the claims of Chicago as the place for holding the convention.

Descon Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, told why he thought the convention should go to Fort-cornopolis.

Martindale was firmly convinced that Indianapolis was the place they were looking for.

Jackett could not see why they should look farther when Saratoga Springs was at hand. Philadelphia has a permanent exposition building and of course the convention must meet there.

A vote was then taken and Chicago was selected as follows: Chicago, 24; Saratoga Springs, 4; Cincinnati, 2, and Indianapolis 2.

The time for holding the next convention was fixed for Wednesday, June 3rd.

A Surprised Physician.

A DYING PATIENT RECOVERS THROUGH THE INTERPOSITION OF A HUMBLE GERMAN.—Some weeks ago Dr. G—, a very reputable and widely-known physician, living on C street, was called to attend a very complicated case of rheumatism. Upon arriving at the house he found a man about forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame dangerously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knees and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The weight of the clothing was so oppressive that means had to be adopted to keep it from the patient's body.

The doctor saw that his assistance would be of no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door, weeping. At this critical hour, a neighbor, a poor and humble German shoemaker, approached the grief-stricken ones as a saving angel. He had heard of the despair of the family, and now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. As a drowning man will catch at straws, so the poor wife applied this remedy; she had no hope, but would try anything, as a matter of duty. The first application eased the patient very much; after a few hours they used it again, and, wonder of wonders, the pain vanished entirely! Every subsequent application improved the sufferer and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after, he was indeed surprised; for, instead of a corpse, he found a new-made man.—Exchange.

A returned New Caledonian met Victor Hugo the other day and cried to him: "How goes it, you gray-haired old cuss?" Hugo clutched at the welkin for a thunderbolt. "You gray-haired old custodian of the people's liberties!" the man concluded. Hugo embraced him with effusion.

Factory Facts.

Close confinement, careful attention to all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they got out doors or use Hop Bitters, made of the purest and best remedies, and especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. None need suffer if they will use them freely. They cost but a trifle. See another column.

A minister who had been reproving one of his elders for over indulgence observed a cow go down to a stream, take a drink and then turn away. "There," said he to his offending elder, "is an example for you. The cow has quenched its thirst, and has retired." "Yes," replied the other, "that is very true. But suppose another cow had come to the outside of the stream and had said, 'Here's to you,' there's no saying how long they might have gone on."

A Gentle Stimulant Is imparted to the kidneys and bladder by Hostetter's Bitters which is most useful in overcoming torpidity of those organs. Besides infusing more activity into them, this excellent tonic endows them with additional vigor and enables them to better to undergo the wear and tear of the discharging function imposed upon them by nature. Moreover, as they are the channel for the escape of certain impurities from the blood, it increases their usefulness by strengthening and healthful stimulating them. In certain morbid conditions of these important organs, they fall into a sluggish state, which is a usual precursor of disease. That they can be of greater service than a medicine which impels them to greater activity when slothful, is a matter which is more perilous than those which affect the kidneys; and a medicine which averts the peril should be highly esteemed.

A guarantee accompanies each bottle of E. A. Young's Cough and Lung Syrup, which will cure every case of Coughs, Colds or Influenza. His agents have been instructed to refund the money in every instance where it fails to relieve and cure. Trial size 25 cents. Sold at Good Samaritan Drug Store.

The sidewalks are in a dangerous state of slipperiness. That world is a scorch on the Gazette's marvelous system of English.
A small boy can do more resist the temptation to slide over a plank crossing than a reporter can to subscribe $50 to a missionary fund.
The Gazette of this morning publishes a very interesting interview with Rose Overly as to the nature of her testimony in the murder trial. Rose wouldn't say what she would testify to, and that's all she said.
Some philanthropic gentleman could earn the everlasting gratitude of the citizens of this country, at least that very small portion of them who read the Gazette, if he would buy the alleged editor of the journal a dictionary and a spelling book. A grammar would do him no good.
W. C. Goodrich and W. H. Moore, of Chicago, were in the city yesterday getting new evidence for the case in which Ignatz, Boskowitz & Co., of Chicago, sue the Adams Express Company for the recovery of the value of $9,000 worth of furs destroyed by the burning of an express car near Hadley several years ago.
The Gazette of this morning says that six car loads of silkworms passed through this city Monday en route from Japan to France, and places the value at $340. Now the Gazette must certainly mean pumpkins or cordwood in place of silkworms, or else six worms instead of six carloads, unless silkworms have fallen in price amazingly in the last ten days.
August Tackwans and Martha Schneider were married by Justice Driver on Tuesday. If any newspaper in this vicinity can think of another way to spell the names, or another place to locate the ceremony, then the SENTINEL would be pleased to hear from it. Each of the city papers so far has had a different orthography and a different officiating justice.
Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup takes the lead of all medicines for coughs, colds, asthma, sore throat and pulmonary complaints generally. Call on your druggist and try a bottle of it. Price 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.
An interesting session at Reformed Men's Hall last night.
There was another very enthusiastic temperance meeting at Reformed Men's Hall last evening. As announced Wednesday evening, it was "the boys' night" for speeches. Among those who responded to the call were Messrs. Retts, Anderson, Adams, Gilson, Williams, Kavanaugh, Meisenhelter, Beals and Chapman. The latter made a sort of a farewell address, as he is going to DeKalb county to work up temperance.
Mrs. Dille read a poem entitled "Poor Tom," which was well received.
Mr. Kavanaugh presented a paper called the Journal of Freedom and Light. He said it was addressed to "Thos. Kavanaugh, Temperance Apostle, Fort Wayne." [Laughter.] It is "devoted to the interests of brewers, distillers, saloon keepers, tobacco dealers and manufacturers of billiard and other gaming tables, etc." Mr. Kavanaugh referred to an article warning dealers in the traffic to beware of the temperance boom.
The 30th of December has been set apart as "Jubilee Day" by the Christian Temperance Union of the state. Sober, concerts, etc., will be given, half the proceeds to go towards defraying the expenses of organizers.
A temperance dramatic company is being organized in this city. "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" will be presented after the holidays. It is said the company will contain some fine talent.
There will be another meeting this evening. All are invited.
A Wise Dilemma.
"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family so well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors running to us so long."
"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Hop Bitters in time and kept my family well and saved large doctor bills. Three dollars' worth of

It kept us all well and able to work all the time, and I will warrant it has cost you and most of the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time. I guess you'll take my medicine hereafter." See other column.
IMPORTANT TO ANIMALS.
An Interesting Order Made by the Board of Commissioners.
Be it remembered, that on Saturday, June 28th, 1879, it being the sixth day of the June special (1879) term of the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, held at the court house, in the county and state aforesaid, among others the following proceedings were had, viz.:
"State of Indiana, Allen county, ss.—Ordered by the board of commissioners of the county of Allen, pursuant to the provisions of an act of the general assembly of the state of Indiana, approved March 29th, 1874, entitled 'an act to amend section 1 of an act to provide for the regulation of the running at large all kinds of animals, within the different townships in the different counties of the state, and to provide for the taking up, impounding and selling of all such animals as shall not be allowed by law to run at large. Approved May 31st, 1862.'
"That hereafter cows of any age are the only animals that shall be allowed to pasture or run at large on the uninclosed lands or public commons within the bounds of any township in said county."
"State of Indiana, Allen county, ss.: I, Martin E. Argo, auditor in and for said county, do hereby certify that the foregoing, to which this is attached, is a full, true complete and perfect copy of an order in relation to animals running at large, made by the board of commissioners of said county, at their June special term 1879, as appears from the records of the board now in my office.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the commissioners' court, at the city of Fort Wayne, this 6th day of September, A. D. 1879.
MARTIN E. ARGO,
Auditor of Allen county, Ind.
ENTIRELY RECOVERED.
NEW YORK CITY, June 10, 1879.
H. H. Warren & Co.—Gentlemen—
I hereby certify that my wife has been using Warner's Safe Kidney Liver Cure for Bright's Disease, and she is now entirely recovered. When all physicians' remedies failed, she was induced to try your remedy, and received beneficial results from the first bottle. After taking four bottles she was entirely cured.
Yours truly,
ROBERT B. FITZGERALD.

THE CITY.

Colder.
Bass's works are booming.
Prayer meetings last night.
H. G. Olds is at Cincinnati.
And yet there is no sleighing.
George Reiter is at Van Wert.
Christmas—a week from to-day.
Joe Murphy on Saturday night.
The Gazette has sobered up again.
Joe Murphy next Saturday night.
Colds are the prevailing rage now.
The weather has "caught on" again.
Hunt sleds are finding a ready sale.
New Year cards at the SENTINEL office.
The Harrison street sewer has been repaired.
The Columbia City disaster was a terrible affair.
It's about time for J. D. Cook to show up again.
The display of holiday goods is getting to be grand.
Broadway is catching a great share of west end trade.
Pork and beef are coming into town in large quantities.
The water works trustees office will have a bell telephone.
Christmas week will be plentifully besprinkled with balls.
O. L. Perry looks very youthful without his Napoleon.
Shurick & Olds have resumed operations at their factory.
Skelton's Grocery displays a mammoth figure of Santa Claus.
The Qui Vive Club will hop tomorrow night, at Arion Hall.
The ice men want about twelve inches more of cold weather.
Miss Connie Davis and Mrs. Mayhugh leave for Santa Fe to-day.
C. L. Olds was registered at the Morton, Grand Rapids, Tuesday.
The city schools will close for the holidays on next Wednesday noon.
A brother of Mrs. Wm. H. Beals died a few days since in California.
Shaffer, the billiardist, will be in Fort Wayne some time in January.
Supt. Hillgass is doing the school act. He was at New Haven yesterday.
Where will you have the eagle? A peanut stand would be a better place than none.
December 20th has been selected as a jubilee day for the temperance folks of this city.
The SENTINEL stirred up the Home for the Friendless, and it may do it some good.
The mud blockade has been effectually raised, thanks to the SENTINEL's persistent efforts.
Reserved seats for Joe Murphy and the Wallace Star Company can now be secured at Geo. S. Fowler's.
The case of the state vs. John Muirhead and M. S. Philley was dismissed by Prosecutor Hench yesterday.
J. F. Granger was committed to jail yesterday, to await trial for the burglary of Glaser's residence on Hanna street.
Dr. Anderson had an incipient conflagration yesterday in his studio, caused by a hot stove pipe. No damage was done.
Mrs. Elizabeth Hettinger, aged sixty-five, was buried from her late residence, at No. 95 Montgomery street, yesterday morning.
A burning chimney at No. 241 East Washington street, in the house occupied by Mrs. E. Dinkley, called out the fire department. The fire was extinguished without damage.

M. Cody pronounced water works a failure.
A stove for street cars would be a valuable invention.
The city is happy now that it has a suit for damages on hand.
What has become of Councilman Bush's dog muzzling scheme?
Ehigier's opening took place to-day. The display was immense.
The addition to Nestle's block is completed and already occupied.
The Grattan Literary Society held an interesting meeting last night.
Chris. Entemah will have his addition completed before Christmas.
The west end line of street railway track has been gravelled the entire length.
The funeral of Chas. Mason took place from his late residence this afternoon.
Butter is worth twenty-four cents a pound—at least that is what it sells for.
Dr. Dills says he was not at Richmond yesterday—at least not to his knowledge.
"Commissioner" Edsall is busy attending to the wants of the poor of this township.
"Wholes the mabber?" asked Conover. "Oh! I got a babe cobe," answered his friend.
Conover is negotiating with John Eckert to borrow one of his stockings for Christmas, etc.
The McHale Literary Society will hold a very important meeting at Library Hall to-night.
The sidewalks are in a dangerous state of slipperiness. That word is a scoop on the Gazette's marvelous system of English.
A small boy can no more resist the temptation to slide over a plank crossing than a reporter can to subscribe $50 to a missionary fund.
The Gazette of this morning publishes a very interesting interview with Rose Overly as to the nature of her testimony in the murder trial. Rose wouldn't say what she would testify to, and that's all she said.
Some philanthropic gentleman could earn the everlasting gratitude of the citizens of this country, at least that very small portion of them who read the Gazette, if he would buy the alleged city editor of the journal a dictionary and a spelling book. A grammar would do him no good.
W. G. Goodrich and W. H. Moore, of Chicago, were in the city yesterday getting new evidence for the case in which Ignatz, Boskowitz & Co., of Chicago, sue the Adams Express Company for the recovery of the value of $9,000 worth of furs destroyed by the burning of an express car near Hadley several years ago.
The Gazette of this morning says that six car loads of silk worms passed through this city Monday en route from Japan to France, and places the value at $840. Now the Gazette must certainly mean pumpkins or cordwood in place of silk worms, or else six worms instead of six carloads, unless silk worms have fallen in price amazingly in the last ten days.
August Tackways and Martha Schneider were married by Justice Driver on Tuesday. If any newspaper in this vicinity can think of another way to spell the names, or another place to locate the ceremony, then the SENTINEL would be pleased to hear from it. Each of the city papers so far has had a different orthography and a different officiating justice.
Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup takes the lead of all medicines for coughs, colds, asthma, sore throat and pulmonary complaints generally. Call on your druggist and try a bottle of it. Price 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.
TEMPERANCE.
An interesting session at Reformed Men's Hall last night.
There was another very enthusiastic temperance meeting at Reformed Men's Hall last evening. As announced Wednesday evening, it was "the boys' night for speeches. Among those who responded to the call were Messrs. Rette, Anderson, Adams, Gibson, Williams, Kavanaugh, Meisenhiller, Beals and Chapman. The latter made a sort of a farewell address, as he is going to DeKalb county to work up temperance.
Mrs. Dille read a poem entitled "Poor Tom," which was well received.
Mr. Kavanaugh presented a paper called the Journal of Freedom and Right. He said it was addressed to "Thos. Kavanaugh, Temperance Apostle, Fort Wayne." [Laughter.] It is "devoted to the interests of brewers, distillers, saloon keepers, tobacco dealers and manufacturers of billiard and other gaming tables, etc." Mr. Kavanaugh referred to an article warning dealers in the traffic to beware of the temperance boom.
The 20th of December has been set apart as "Jubilee Day" by the Christian Temperance Union of the state. Societies, concerts, etc., will be given, half the proceeds to go towards defraying the expenses of organizers.
A temperance dramatic company is being organized in this city. "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" will be presented after the holidays. It is said the company will contain some fine talent.
There will be another meeting this evening. All are invited.
A Wise Decree.
"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family so well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors running to us so long."
"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Hop Bitters in time and kept my family well and saved large doctor bills. Three dollars' worth of it kept us all well and able to work all the time, and I will warrant it has cost you and most of the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time. I guess you'll take my medicine hereafter." See other column.

IMPORTANT TO ANIMALS.
An interesting order made by the Board of Commissioners.
Be it remembered, that on Saturday, June 28th, 1879, it being the sixth day of the June special (1879) term of the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, held at the court house in said county and aforesaid, among others the following proceedings were had, viz:
"State of Indiana, Allen county, ss:—Ordered by the board of commissioners of the county of Allen, pursuant to the provisions of an act of the general assembly of the state of Indiana, approved March 29th, 1874, entitled 'an act to amend section 1 of an act to provide for the regulation of the running at large all kinds of animals, within the different townships of the state, and to provide for the taking up, impounding and selling of all such animals as shall not be allowed by law to run at large. Approved May 31st, 1873.'
"That hereafter cows of any age are the only animals that shall be allowed to pasture or run at large on the uninclosed lands or public commons within the bounds of any township in said county."
State of Indiana, Allen county, ss:—I, Martin E. Argo, auditor in and for said county, do hereby certify that the foregoing, to which this is attached, is a full, true, complete and perfect copy of an order in relation to animals running at large, made by the board of commissioners of said county, at their June special term 1879, as appears from the records of the board now in my office.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the commissioners' court, at the city of Fort Wayne, this 6th day of September, A. D. 1879.
MARTIN E. ARGO,
Auditor of Allen county, Ind.

LANDS! LANDS!
KANSAS TO THE FRONT!
The Leading Wheat State in the Union in 1878, and the Fourth Corn State—The Great Kansas Harvest—1878—The "Golden Belt."
The celebrated Grain Belt to country, in the heart of the continent, is now open to settlement by the Kansas Pacific. The following statement is taken from the report of the Kansas state board of agriculture for 1878:
WHEAT—Kansas rises from the Eleventh to the Fourth State in 1878. The First Wheat State in the Union in 1878, producing 26,518,958 bushels winter wheat, and 5,796,403 bushels spring wheat.
32,315,361
Bushels Wheat, or one eighth of the state under cultivation. The organized counties lying in the Golden Belt of the Kansas harvest, produced 32,315,361 bushels, or over 41 percent, and including unreported counties, fully 44,000,000 bushels, or 45 percent of the entire yield of wheat in the state, averaging 21 bushels to the acre, while the average for the state was 18 bushels per acre.
Kansas, the Fourth Corn State in the Union, in 1878, produced 321,371 bushels of Corn. Or which the Golden Belt Belt counties produced 271,399,055 bushels, or 31 percent, nearly one-third of the crop of the state, with an equally grand showing in all other departments of agriculture.
The foregoing facts show conclusively why 29 percent of the increase in population in the state during the past four years, and 40 percent of the increase in the population during the past year, and 43 percent of the increased acreage of wheat in the state in 1878, belonged to the "Golden Belt."
A farm for Everybody—65,000 farms, 6,000,000 acres, for sale by the Kansas Pacific, the best land in America, at from $2 100 per acre, one-quarter off for cash, or on 6 or 12 months credit at 6 percent interest. It doesn't take much money to buy a farm on the Kansas Pacific; $36 to $80 will secure 80 acres on credit, or $120 to $200 in cash will buy it outright.
Send to S. J. Gilmore, Land Commissioner of Kansas, Kansas City, Mo., for the Homestead, a publication which tells all about the country, or call on ISAAC O'SHAUGHNESSY, north-west corner Calhoun and Berry streets, Fort Wayne. It is mailed free to all applicants.

The Pale Face Medicine Man
Of the
Ogallalla Sioux Indians
Has become widely known as the only Indian Medicine Man and Complete Herbalist in the States. Does not claim to be infallible, or to know everything, or to cure everything, or to cure every body; but does claim that a large and extensive practice and unparelleled success as evidence to sustain it, is the best proof of a physician's skill. He treats annually from five to six thousand persons. Experience is worth everything. He is careful in opinion, reasonable in charges, and will not neglect or postpone you to take treatment, and no one will be treated unless there is a strong probability of a cure of permanent benefit. No charge for admission.

AMUSEMENTS.

JOE MURPHY.

The greatest Irish delineator and the finest protean actor on the stage, will appear at the Academy next Saturday evening in his new and very popular drama of "Sham Rhuo," which has made a very decided hit all over the country. Mr. Murphy is so well known here that the mere announcement of his appearance ought to be sufficient to crowd the Academy to its utmost extent. Seats can now be secured at Geo. S. Fowler's.

THE WALLACK STAR COMPANY.

The finest dramatic combination in the country is said to be the Wallack Star Company from New York, which will open a two nights' engagement at the Academy of Music next Monday evening, when Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors," or "Two Dromios," will be presented. The company includes Miss Genevieve Rogers, Frank E. Aiken and Owen Fawcett, either one of whom alone is a big attraction. Seats can now be secured at George S. Fowler's.

The Burlington Hawkeye says:

"The most comical of all the errors was that of those who stopped away from the play last night. They made a big mistake. And the fun of it is, they will never know how great their mistake is; for the chances are two to one that they will never see that magnificent comedy played so well. It was delightful. The house was just full enough to make the actors feel well and play well; and they played so well that the house cheered from the bottom of every heart. Through all that play every line in that great hall was in a ripple. It was good—it was good. Every humorous point was brought out to perfection. The only way that we could tell Antipholus of Syracuse from Antipholus of Ephesus was in the low, rich roll of Frank Aiken's voice. (No disrespect to you, Mr. Murray, for you played excellently.) And so for the two Dromios, this reporter don't know yet which was Fawcett and which was Rainforth. If ever two bites were made of one cherry, those men bit it last night. Even the closest attention to the play couldn't show which was which."

"Miss Genevieve Rogers, as Adriana, played with an earnestness which, in the midst of all the fun, was not only beautiful but pathetic. There was a naturalness even in her fancied injury, that made us impatient for the time when she would see those two brothers together. Miss Sennon as Lucinda, also played well."

"The play is also on the stage most excellently. The company is one of great talent. The actors render their parts so truthfully and carefully that it is a real pleasure to sit before them."

GOUGING GOODMAN.

A Successful Burglary on Columbia Street.

Plunder to the Amount of $114 Raked In.

One of the boldest and most daring burglaries and robberies committed in this city for a long time was perpetrated last night upon the establishment of Chas. Goodman on East Columbia street, whereby the robbers gained plunder amounting to the shag little sum of $114 in cash.

The burglars gained an entrance by raising the grate on the sidewalk leading to the cellar. Once in the cellar, it was an easy matter to raise the trap door leading to the saloon above, it not being bolted. Mr. Goodman sleeps in a room above the saloon, as does his barkeeper. The parties bent on spoil evidently were aware of this fact, for it is safe to suppose that they at once went up-stairs into the sleeping room, and finding Mr. Goodman's clothing on a chair near the bed, they first went through his pockets, and finding nothing there they appropriated a bunch of keys and went down stairs, where they amused themselves by opening the money drawer, finding a stake which netted them exactly $100. Then, by holding a capacious palm to the edge of the marble top sidewalk with the other hand they raked down about $5 more in change, which was lying there, and departed in peace by the same route that they entered. The door to the sleeping room was locked, but the key being in the door and a pair of nippers in the burglar's hand, that simple circumstance offered no material obstacle.

The burglars were, by the way, very generous, as a finely mounted revolver and a silver watch lay in full sight of their eyes, but they disturbed them not.

There is no clue to the burglars further than that yesterday afternoon a pair of strangers dropped into the saloon and stood about watching a game of cards in progress and also a game of pool. They had no apparent object in view as they bought nothing and were evidently strangers to each other. One of them stood close by the trip door and stairway while the other stood with his back to the stove, taking in a view of the bar. One of them remained but a short time and left and the other followed soon after. About half an hour afterward they were seen in conversation and apparently old friends, a few doors above Goodman's place. The police are working the matter up and may succeed in capturing them.

AMUSEMENTS.

JOE MURPHY.

The greatest Irish delineator and the finest protean actor on the stage, will appear at the Academy next Saturday evening in his new and very popular drama of "Shaun Rhue," which has made a very decided hit all over the country. Mr. Murphy is so well known here that the mere announcement of his appearance ought to be sufficient to crowd the Academy to its utmost extent. Seats can now be secured at Geo. S. Fowler's.

THE WALLACK STAR COMPANY.

The finest dramatic combination in the country is said to be the Wallack Star Company from New York, which will open a two nights' engagement at the Academy of Music next Monday evening, when Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors," or "Two Dromios," will be presented. The company includes Miss Genevieve Rogers, Frank E. Aiken and Owen Fawcett, either one of whom alone is a big attraction. Seats can now be secured at George S. Fowler's.

The Burlington Hawkeye says:

"The most comical of all the errors was that of those who stopped away from the play last night. They made a big mistake. And the fun of it is, they will never know how great their mistake is; for the chances are two to one that they never see the magnificent comedy played so well. It was delightful. The house was full enough to make the actors feel well and play well; and they played so well that the house cheered from the bottom of every heart. Through all that play every face in that great hall was a ripple. It was good—it was good. Every humorous point was brought out to perfection. The only way that we could tell Antipholus of Syracuse from Antipholus of Ephesus was in the low, rich roll of Frank Aiken's voice. (No disrespect to you, Mr. Murray, for you played excellently.) And as for the two Dromios, this reporter don't know yet which was Fawcett and which was Rainforth. If ever two bites were made of one cherry, those men bit it last night. Even the closest attention to the play couldn't show which was which."

"Miss Genevieve Rogers, as Adriana, played with an earnestness which, in the midst of all the fun, was not only beautiful but pathetic. There was a naturalness even in her fancied injury, that made us impatient for the time when she would see those two brothers together. Miss Sennon as Lucina, also played well."

The play is put on the stage most excellently. The company is one of great talent. The actors render their parts so truthfully and carefully that it is a real pleasure to sit before them."

PELTIER'S PUNISHMENT.

Justice Pratt Acquires the School Teacher.

Another Trial Before Mayor Zollinger.

The following is the conclusion of the evidence of Miss Humphrey in the case of Delphine C. Wells, of the Clay school, before Justice Pratt, yesterday:

I sent him to the office yesterday for misconduct, and after he was whipped he behaved very well.

Mrs. Wells testified: I am principal of the Clay street school; my attention has frequently been called to the case of young Peltier's incorrigibility. I had told him I should have to punish him if he did not behave; his father told me to punish him, but not to strike him about the head and neck; yesterday after he had been sent to me, I found him in the yard and sent him into the basement, and after he had taken his coat off, I made him lay down on a desk, for I thought I would punish him about the hips. He said "I won't," and I took hold of him and pushed him against the wall, but he did not strike his head against the wall. I called Mr. Doty, who put the boy on the seat and I whipped him about the hips and then sent him to his room. I did not strike him about the head.

Cross-examined: I took off his vest a good deal as you you (Oppenheimer) would take off your vest I presume; I cannot manage a boy of his size, as I am not a pugilist.

Mr. Peltier being re-examined said his son's vest was torn.

After hearing the arguments by counsel, Justice Pratt discharged the prisoner.

The case of Delphine Wells for assault on Willie Felder, was tried before the mayor to-day, the second trial being under a section of the city ordinances. Substantially the same evidence was introduced as was offered before Justice Pratt, and the mayor found for the plaintiff and assessed the fine at $5.

The attorneys for Mrs. Wells took an appeal from the mayor's decision.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A Lively Whirl on Calhoun Street this Morning.

Remarkable Escape from Serious Results.

A team belonging to a farmer named Shieman from Adams county, took fright near the corner of Washington and Calhoun streets this morning. The farmer being benumbed by the cold could not control them, and they were soon dashing down Calhoun street at a terrible rate. The square between Main and Columbia streets was lined with wagons and people, and as the team approached that place a disastrous collision seemed unavoidable.

The horses were large and powerful beasts, and the frantic efforts of the driver had no effect in checking their speed. Fred. Briel saw them coming, and by shouting at the top of his voice, which naturally resembled a fog horn, the street was cleared just before the runaway team dashed into the narrow passage between the wagons. They got through safely until near the corner of Columbia street, when a front wheel locked with another wagon and the whole business was twisted and skewed around in a bewildering manner. This checked the team for a moment, and before they recovered a dozen hands were laid on the brides, and they were stopped. Close examination failed to reveal the slightest damage.

FALSE AND FICKLE.

A Farmer's Daughter and Her Love Experiences.

She Gets Married and Runs Away With Her Brother-in-Law.

An interesting story was related to a SENTINEL reporter yesterday. It appears that a Mr. H., living about six miles from the city on a small farm, has a "most attractive daughter." Mr. H., according to report has not been so careful of the afore said daughter's virtue as he should have been. The story goes that recently a certain night watchman and a saloon keeper from this city visited the farm, and one of the twain being duly impressed with the young woman's charms, offered her father the sum of one dollar for the privilege of enjoying the girl's society in a manner not according to Hoyle. The father, it is said, accepted the offer, but the girl refused to be sacrificed, and wrote a letter to a young man whom she fancied, relating the circumstance and asking him to come and take her away. Instead of doing so, he showed the letter to her father who, it is said, thereupon walloped her in a most vigorous way. A brother of the young man to whom she had appealed, however, took pity upon her, married her and took her to his father's house. While her husband was absent from home, however, brother No. 1 put in an appearance, and, notwithstanding his former treatment of the girl, she "tackled to him kindly" and came to the city with him, deserting her husband and establishing herself in a house kept by a woman of doubtful reputation. The husband, upon returning home, found that his wife had fled, and followed her to the city, finding her at the house referred to. He begged her to go back with him, but she only laughed at his entreaties and told him she did not love him and never had, but that she loved his brother and proposed to stick to him.

It is proper to say that the father denies all the allegations made against him. The deserted husband will, it is said, shortly file a suit for divorce, alleging abandonment and adultery with his brother.

Mr. Bond's New Venture.

We have received Mr. Henry W. Bond's catalogue advertised in another column. Mr. Bond has opened an agency at 58 Walker street, New York, for the purchase of everything used in the parlor, library, dining room, chamber, kitchen, stable, carriage house, and used or worn by ladies, gentlemen and young people. In the preface to his catalogue he explains his manner of doing business, and sums up as follows:

"Prices are lower in New York than elsewhere, the variety greater, and the styles the best."

"My object is to put parties living out of the city on a par with its residents."

"My specialty is knowing about the value of goods, the best places to buy, and in making this knowledge serviceable to my customers."

"I give each customer's order prompt attention, insuring accuracy and dispatch."

"I charge no commission, as merchants allow agencies a discount for cash, on account of large purchases, which they will not give to private parties."

"Having once tried this plan you will find it advantageous and convenient."

We can say for Mr. Bond that any commission entrusted to him will be discharged honestly and intelligently.

Mr. Bond's New Venture.

We have received Mr. Henry W. Bond's catalogue advertised in another column. Mr. Bond has opened an agency at 58 Walker street, New York, for the purchase of everything used in the parlor, library, dining room, chamber, kitchen, stable, carriage house, and used or worn by ladies, gentlemen and young people. In the preface to his catalogue he explains his manner of doing business, and sums up as follows:

"Prices are lower in New York than elsewhere, the variety greater, and the styles the best."

"My object is to put parties living out of the city on a par with its residents."

"My specialty is knowing about the value of goods, the best places to buy, and in making this knowledge serviceable to my customers."

"I give each customer's order prompt attention, insuring accuracy and dispatch."

"I charge no commission, as merchants allow agencies a discount for cash, on account of large purchases, which they will not give to private parties."

"Having once tried this plan you will find it advantageous and convenient."

We can say for Mr. Bond that any commission entrusted to him will be discharged honestly and intelligently.

We would advise our friends to take a look through H. J. Ash's Mammoth Stove House, No. 9 East Columbia street, before buying parlor and kitchen stoves. 12,5
